

fine arts school of central florida

The Fine Arts School of Central Florida is now taking registrations for the 2011-2011 school year. This school is a joint effort between Grace and St. Paul, Lakeland, to provide opportunities for equipping students of all ages in the arts, including private vocal and instrumental lessons or class instruction in dance, crafts, or drawing. Not all instrument or class instructions are available at both campuses.

For more information contact Wynn Bonner x264 at Grace, or the school's dean, Gloria Klockziem, at St. Paul, Lakeland (863) 644-7710 x415. Or, you may register directly on-line by clicking on the following link:
